DESCRIPTION OF THE OFFENSE

Provide a summary of the details of the offense (i.e.: who, what, when, where, and how; any unusual behavior, any physical evidence and its disposition, and any immediate action taken – including use of force, etc.)

On 1/25/2022 at approximately 10:31 AM, I had made several attempts to explain to patient that the Labcorp Website terminal was not displaying the inmates most recent lab results. I had even showed her that her name was typed in correctly and when entered, there were no results to display; and she became verbally abusive, stating that the doctors here were all stupid, and she demanded that I call the Lab manager here to get the results from her, I explained she would be logging into the same system that I was logged into, and she became more abusive telling me that I was a stupid doctor, and did not know what I was doing, and she told me that I was ... <Con't> withholding her lab from her intentionally. I told her that the interview was over, and she refused to leave, still demanding that I get her lab to her. I told her when the lab results were available on the system, we would call her down to discuss her labs. I was going out of my way to accommodate her, as her visit was only to discuss her vitamin refill, and I continued to spend the effort to look up her labs and get her the information she requested. She then stated she was going to file a report to allow her to be seen by another provider.

Description of Offense
